A couple of news items:

1. 2011 Annual conference February 6 – 8, 2011 – ABSTRACTS EXTENDED TO FRIDAY 17TH DECEMBER & REGISTRATIONS REQUIRED

The CLTA Conference will be hosted by the Law School, QUT, in Brisbane Australia. The link to the Law School website is here.

2. History of corporate law project CCLSR

The University of Melbourne’s Centre for Corporate Law and Securities Regulation has recently created a new section of the Centre for Corporate Law website that deals with the history of Australian corporate law. This new section of the website provides links to key documents in the history of Australian corporate law. It also includes relevant UK documents. The objective is to provide a valuable resource for those researching Australian corporate law.

The Centre has kindly passed on the link to CLTA members: the link is:

3. Conference bursary for research higher degree students

If you are supervising a student who you feel is ready to present their research paper at the conference, please consider nominating your student for the travel bursary. Please send the CLTA executive committee cltawebadmin@gmail.com a brief email regarding the candidate’s research work and the reason for your nomination. If you would like to discuss this, please feel free to contact me direct 02 6125 6755.

The committee reserves the right not to make any award of a travel bursary.

4. Associate Professor John Lessing

Please note that on behalf of the membership I wrote a letter of condolence to John’s family, including a tribute written by Prof Paul Redmond. I thank Paul for putting into words so eloquently the feelings of the profession and members is losing John as a colleague. In due course I will post this to the CLTA website.

5. Festive season

To all members and their families, please take some time to relax and refresh with your loved ones over the holiday season and take care.

Regards,
Ellie (president) CLTA
