A couple of news items:

1. 2011 Annual conference February 6 – 8, 2011

The CLTA Conference will be hosted by the Law School, QUT, in Brisbane Australia. Please note this date in your diaries now.

The conference theme is: Future Directions for Corporate Law: Where are we now and where do we go from here?

For registration, call for papers etc, the link to the Law School website is here.

2. Professor Harold Ford – 90th Birthday celebrations

As members are aware, we are honoured that professor Ford is our first Life member. To mark his 90th birthday, the University of Melbourne law school is planning some commemorative events. In the meantime, Professor Ian Ramsay has written a report based on his recent interviews with Prof Ford, based on Prof Ford's contributions to the areas of company and commercial law and equity, as well as his reflections on the future of these areas of scholarship and regulation. Professor Ramsay has kindly made available a copy of this report, and it is available to members on the CLTA website.

3. Member news and events

Members are welcome to send in news, items of interest and events for the CLTA website. Generally, we won't circulate attachments to members, but members will be advised of news and events through email announcements and web links.
